

The San Gabriel River Watershed Management Committee was extremely helpful. A wealth of information was provided to WMC representatives by colleagues from other cities that participate in groups such as the Los Angeles and San Gabriel River Regional Monitoring, Los Angeles River Metals Technical and Steering Committees, CREST subcommittees, and the EAC. In addition, representatives from nearby cities provided useful information and recommendations on ways to improve stormwater program implementation.